Dear Jon:

Enclosed is the 1809 C2 which we discussed. The envelope is the original Showers' envelope prepared by Jon Hanson. Please let me know if this is a satisfactory coin in exchange for the one you sent me.

Dear Jon:

When I returned from our trip to Bolivia, Peru, and Ecuador (not Europe this time) I found your letter about the 09C2. I am glad that you are happy with the trade. As you know, I don't consider your coin a 2b either, but I am not sure what it is. If I see a 2b around, I will certainly let you know.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'R. Tettenhorst' in a cursive style.

October 21, 97

Dear Tet,

Thanks for sending the 09 C2. The good news is that it's as advertised. Just the kind of coin I was looking for to upgrade mine. The bad news is that last week I received the updated half cent survey and I realized that I would be losing a variety and possibly a notch in the survey. One part of me says "Who cares" - but another says "Hey, I don't want to drop a place". I let it sit on me for a day, to see if the "Who cares" would win out, but it doesn't seem to have.

At one time you had offered to swap me a higher grade 95 C2b for my error coin and I guess that would be best for the competitive side of me. Sorry that I wasn't in tune earlier.

Well, give me a call or drop me a note (or better yet e-mail: cd@roms.com) and let's see what the next step should be.

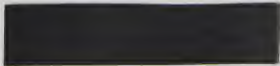

Thanks - (from your competitive half cent friend)

Dear Tet,

Hope your Europe trip was great. I looked into the matter and decided to accept your offer of the 09 C2. Sorry I it took me a while. At least half the people I talked with were unwilling to call my coin a 2b.

Hope to see you soon and read the article.

Happy half cent hunting --

Dear Mr. Tettenhorst,

Enclosed is the half cent we discussed today,
1793 C-2 with edge lettering which reads
TWO HUNDRED FOR A DOLL. My asking price is $1800. If this seems unreasonable, however,
I would certainly consider a counter-offer.

Sincerely,
